

$40,000 Sought For Legion Hall

Aurora—Residents here and in the district will be approached by canvassers this month to lend their financial support to the $40,000 memorial building fund campaign launched by Aurora Branch 385, Canadian Legion. During the war years Aurora and district lent full support to the efforts of servicemen and women and every objective set for the community went "over the top". In peacetime Aurora also has a proud record of generous donations to all worthy charities and community endeavors and the members of the Canadian Legion who served their country in time of war are confident that "Lest we forget" will be the slogan adopted by those asked to contribute.

Full support to the campaign has been lent by Mayor Dr. Crawford Rose who has issued the following statement: "During this month you will be asked to lend your financial support to the campaign of the memorial building fund of the Aurora branch, Canadian Legion. To this most praiseworthy endeavor may we request your wholehearted assistance. Nothing further can be gained by delay and it is our wish that this project be carried through to completion as soon as possible. Toward that end may we all as individuals and as organized groups give freely and willingly, 'Lest we forget'."

The board of trustees, headed by a former mayor, Dr. C. R. Boulding, gave the following pledge: "The erection of a suitable memorial hall with auditorium, stage, kitchen and club rooms as speedily as possible; 2. Full use of the auditorium and the hall to the entire community as occasion demands; 3. A full accounting of the disbursements of all funds to all subscribers. No application to be made for a license from the Liquor Control board of Ontario either now or in the future; 5. The full continued support of the officers and members of Aurora branch 385, Canadian Legion, to all worthwhile community activities."

R. V. Smith To Head V.O.N. Committee

Aurora—Rod V. Smith will head the Aurora Victorian Order of Nurses committee for 1948. At the annual meeting in the I.O.O.F. hall on Thursday, the members heard encouraging reports on the success of the plan in Aurora last year, saw the budget balanced and all expenses met. A drive for 1,000 members will be made in March. Guest speaker was Miss Isobel Black, Ottawa, assistant supervisor for Canada of the V.O.N.

Miss Black, former Aurora resident, outlined the work being carried out across Canada and the nurse's duty. "More than ever before, Canada is becoming health conscious and the V.O.N. nurse is playing a leading part in defeating sickness and disease," she said.

Officers elected for 1948 are: hon. pres., Mayor Dr. Crawford Rose; hon. vice pres., Mrs. L. C. Lee; pres., Rod V. Smith; first

Aurora Library Reports Increase

Aurora—Residents continue to give Aurora Public library increased patronage and 1947 reports show each local resident reads 6.3 books a year. With a total of 9,687 volumes on the shelves, circulation showed: adult fiction, 10,261; non-fiction, 1,287; and children's books, 9,989; last year. There are 549 adult members registered and 378 juveniles. Casual visitors almost double this number. Reference texts alone had 434 readers at the library building. Receipts for the year totalled $1,510.60, with a balance on hand of $177.48. The value of the books is set at $4,600.00.

Housed in the former health hall, chief complaint of the board is the difficulty of heating the premises and this undoubtedly cut down the circulation figures and number of patrons last year. Chairman of the board is William Coleman, while members are: Rod V. Smith, Delroy Babcock, Miss Leila Boynton, Mrs. George Baldwin, Sidney Davies, and Mayor Dr. Crawford Rose. Miss Marjorie Andrews is librarian and Miss Vera Barkley, assistant. Mr. Smith replaces Mrs. G. R. Ardill, who resigned because of ill-health. Adult book purchasing committee

Four Generations At Family Reunion

Newmarket—Four generations of the family of Mrs. E. Austin, formerly of Birmingham, England, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Stewart, Gormham St., on Friday evening to celebrate the arrival of Mrs. Austin and her daughter, Mrs. A. Gretores, from England. Mrs. Austin will be 83 next month, but she stood the trans-Atlantic crossing well, and according to Mrs. Gretores, was overjoyed to join her other two daughters in Canada. Mrs. Austin and Mrs. Gretores arrived in Halifax on Sunday aboard the Ascania, and reached Toronto on Tuesday.

The decision to settle in Canada was prompted by the glowing letters which Mrs. Austin received from her daughters, Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. A. Sullivan, Toronto.

Sixteen people were present at the celebration, including Mrs. Austin, her three daughters, Mrs. Sullivan's son-in-law and daughter (Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, Scotland), and their two sons, Mrs. Sullivan's son and daughter-in-law (Mr. and Mrs. A. Shaw, Simcoe, who expect to move to Scotland shortly) and their three children, and Mrs. Stewart's three children.

Less Unemployment Than In '47 Here

Newmarket—There are more male applicants for work in this area than there are jobs to fill, according to a report from A. D. Schneider, manager of the Unemployment Insurance Commission in Newmarket. However, unemployment is actually less here now than it was at this time a year ago, the report adds.

The housing shortage is a contributing factor to the difficulty in filling orders for labor. "Married persons, placed away from home, frequently quit in order to be closer to their families," the report says.

The small surplus of farm labor applicants is described as being unsuited to fill the few orders which are on hand and which require considerable experience and ability. Many of the present applicants for factory work are employed in tourist industries in the summer and the factories were not anxious to hire these men, the report says.

There are many orders for women for work in the factories and the report says suitable applicants, living close enough, are soon placed.

Outdoor construction is quiet, but some indoor trim carpentry is being done and there is still a limited demand for trim carpenters. A great many construction laborers and rough carpenters are unemployed.

Full Scarlet Fever Treatment Given 107

Newmarket—A total of 27 immunization clinics against scarlet fever were held in 1947, with 107 children receiving the full series of treatments, according to the annual report of Miss Clara S. Kittner, public health nurse. The report was read at a recent meeting of the Newmarket board of health. "A clinic was held following the full series of treatments against scarlet fever, on December 22 and 23, and of the 75 children who received the Dick test (of the degree of the immunization) at that time, all were found negative with the exception of two, who were slightly positive," the report said. A negative test indicates that a child has probably been immunized successfully against the disease.

In addition five children received reinforcement treatments against the disease, the report stated. Miss Kittner's monthly report said the clinics began on November 7 and were held daily for five weeks with 134 children registering in the first week. The two children who still reacted positively to the Dick test at the end of the series were given a reinforcement treatment.

Barefoot In Europe Unless Aided — Beer

Europe must depend on supplies from this continent or go barefooted for several years to come, Dr. Paul Beer of the Collier Leather Co. Ltd., Aurora, told the second annual convention of the Canadian Shoe Retailers Association at Quebec this week. At home, he predicted "ups and downs in the price of hides and leather and probably in shoes also."

Dr. Beer said depleted cattle stocks, war-damaged tanneries and shoe factories provided the answer why European countries, which in pre-war years were the largest exporters of finished leather to the U.S. and Canada, are not now able to satisfy their own requirements.

Horse, Truck Collide Rider Bruised

Aurora—Miss Aileen Russell, Huron St., Toronto, escaped with bruises to her left leg when the horse she was riding was in collision with a truck on Yonge St., just south of Aurora, on Monday. Provincial Constable Jack Stott, Aurora, was forced to shoot the horse, which suffered a broken back and several bad gashes according to Dr. A. J. McKinnon, Richmond Hill veterinarian. Occupants of the truck were unhurt.

Miss Russell, who owned the horse, told police she was thrown from the saddle in the collision. Police said the left hindquarter of the horse was struck by the truck's loading platform.

Thomas Smart, 18, Elgin Mills, driver of the truck, said he was proceeding south when he saw the horse and crowded as far as he could to the east side of the road to avoid him. Value of the horse was estimated at $150.

Continue Search For Housing Site

Newmarket—Postponement of the meeting of the Newmarket town council on Monday night gave the members one more week in which to consider the proposals of the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation for a low-rental housing development and to investigate possible sites. After going over all likely site prospects with town officials a few weeks ago the crown company wrote that the only two sites considered feasible were the Newmarket fair grounds and some private property on the west side of Lorne Ave.

The corporation's proposals were to the effect that it would buy and service the land and build 50 low-rental houses for veterans, provided the town would waive tax rights on the land for ten years and would maintain the services or, alternatively, that it would pay a yearly set tax on each of the houses provided the town would buy and service the land. The houses built under the scheme would rent for 60 cents per $100 building cost and the cost of each lot and services is set at a maximum of $600.

Several strong protests against the use of the fair grounds were made before council and although there has never been a show of hands on a motion to use the fair grounds, it is almost certain that such a motion would be defeated, despite the acute housing shortage and the fact that there have already been close to 100 applicants for the houses.

Since the corporation's written decision, however, representatives have examined several more possible sites and Deputy-Reeve J. L. Spilllette said yesterday that it now seems likely that at least some of the houses may be spotted throughout the town.

He said he doubted whether enough information would be available for a final decision even at the forthcoming meeting on Monday night.

Other councillors were a little more hopeful for a final decision

WILLIAM JAMES

at an early date, while two said they were "in the dark." Councillor Frank Bowser said information was not complete enough for a decision last Monday. "We didn't have enough particulars then," he said. "I am not in favor of the houses being built at the fairgrounds because I don't think it's the ideal site the corporation apparently believed. I think there might be considerable difficulty with sewers there, especially in the houses with basements." Councillor Tom Birrell was definitely against the use of the fairgrounds.

Mayor Joseph Vale commented, "No site has been selected yet. I'm hoping we'll have things cleared up enough to make a final decision on Monday night. Last Monday's meeting was postponed because of the inability of the members to decide on a site to recommend but if we don't make a decision next Monday the whole thing might as well fold up."

St. John's Leaves School League

Newmarket—Five hockey players from St. John's belong to the Midget team, two more belong to the Bantam team, and since they are banned from all school teams, and because Grade five boys are also eliminated from the school league teams, it leaves St. John's school with a minimum of recruits for school hockey. Therefore, for this year only, St. John's boys are retiring from the school hockey teams.

DOBBIN GETS BREAK

Thanks to the round metal disk floating in the centre of his water trough at Meadowdale, Pa., this horse has the laugh on old man winter: the disk is a floating water heater to assure farm animals of a drink despite the cold. The device contains a 500-watt heating element and gives off just enough heat to keep a large area of the trough clear of ice. Thermostatically controlled, the heater shuts off when the heat is no longer required. Cost of operation is said to be less than five cents a day.

Special Day

Sunday, Feb. 8, was a special day for the members of Christ church as it was the birthday of the vicar, and the oldest member of the congregation, the beloved Miss Fox, affectionately known among us as 'Aunt Stan.' The day was too cold for her to come and worship with us, so Rev. F. V. Abbott called to see her on his way home to offer congratulations. She spent the day surrounded by members of her family. Mr. and Mrs. P. Muirhead, Mr. Bill Muirhead and his two daughters, Colleen and Sandra, and Uncle Jim, all of Kettleby. Mrs. Terry, Miss Bingley, Mr. and Mrs. E. Misner, Mrs. Edith Alexander, Joyce and Jack Alexander, Mr. Bill Medland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Muirhead, Miss Shirley Muirhead, all of Toronto, and Mr. Wilbur Crane of Kettleby. Cards of congratulation came from relatives and friends in many parts of Canada and the United States. Knowing her love of flowers, many beautiful potted plants and bouquets were sent, among them a lovely bunch of daffodils from the Ladies' Guild. We all wish her many more happy returns. Mrs. Bill Muirhead was unable to be present as she was visiting a sick brother.

The regular meeting of the Union Street Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Irvine Rose on Thursday, Feb. 5. Contributions are being sent to the Canadian Appeal for Children Fund which opens this week end to the Italian Relief Fund. Mrs. Ernie Burgess, program convenor, gave a most interesting paper on "Holland Marsh plans its future". Mrs. David English gave a contest on old song titles with Mrs. E. Burgess and Miss V. Micks being the winners. A poem entitled Winter Farm Houses was read by Miss Violet Micks. Mrs. Ted Breen read the questions contained in the question box and the answers were both helpful and interesting. Mrs. Irvine Rose, leader of the Girls' club, had several articles on display that had been made by the girls and a number of these were purchased by the ladies. A social half-hour followed the closing of the meeting when the hostesses, Mrs. Doug Beckett, Mrs. Lillian Johnston and Mrs. Roy Cowieson served date loaf, cake and coffee.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. W. P. Micks and family in their recent bereavement.

KESWICK

(Intended for last week) Starting last Sunday and lasting until March 26, Rev. R. Brown has begun a series of sermons on "The Lord's Prayer." Plan to attend every Sunday so not to miss one of these inspiring messages.

February 13 is the World's Day of Prayer and on that day it is planned to have everyone bring his donations of clothing and non-perishable foodstuff to send for the Relief for Britain and western Europe. May everyone of us who have so many, give to partially alleviate the sufferings of others in the war-ravaged countries. Those people are still bearing the brunt of the war and they look to us for a few of the bare necessities to hold body and soul together. We dare not fail them, for "Inasmuch," the Master said.

The Sunday-school executive met Monday night in the Sunday-school rooms. Important business was dealt with in connection with the Sunday-school attendance and with the principles of Sunday skating and open business places. Some were in favor of it, some against. Few were neutral.

Cub and Scout mothers held their second meeting at Mrs. J. Reller's with the president, Mrs. Stinson, in the chair. Plans are underway for a play to be given in aid of the Scout organization.

Keswick has acquired a new hockey team, a group of the middle-aged men, who put on a spectacular game on Monday night against a similar team from Miami Beach.

We understand a few of the players suffered slightly from the unusual exertion. Score was 4-7 for Miami.

HANDS AT WORK...

LEARNING ELECTRONICS

ONTARIO'S products are desired and purchased by people all over the world, and the capacity to produce such goods largely determines the economic welfare of every man, woman and child within her borders. Because the sale of every article produced in Ontario brings valuable dollars into this Province, we are all more assured of job security... and we and our children can have more of the better things in life. But to produce such goods in sufficient quantities, skilled labour is vital. That is why every single one of us should be glad that war veterans are constantly being trained to provide the skilled hands so needed by Ontario industry. They receive ON THE JOB training under expert instructors in our Ontario factories.

This training, provided through the co-operation of the Ontario Department of Affairs, the Federal Department of Labour and the Ontario Department of Education, starts the veteran off on the road to skilled craftsmanship. His television and the field of industrial electronics all offer outstanding opportunities for skilled technicians and because Ontario's electronics products are eagerly purchased by countries the world over, every effort of these newly skilled veterans helps to make Ontario a finer place in which to live and contributes to the welfare and happiness of all her citizens.

Stanley Barlow, 21, and S. R. Inkster, 26, both of Toronto, and both former members of the Royal Canadian Air Force, are typical of the hundreds of veterans who have been trained in schools and ON THE JOB.

Here they check the measurements and performance characteristics of an electronic control device for control of motor speeds. This instrument was designed and constructed by these two veterans under supervision of an electronics expert.

Central Site More Favorable

The York county council has given permission of the Ontario Municipal Board to issue debentures for $357,800 for the erection of a new county building. There is no doubt of the need of a new building as anyone who has been in the present county building on Adelaide St., Toronto, can testify. The debate was not on whether or not the building was needed but on the timing of the project. Cost is high now but funds are more plentiful. In a few years hence, cost may be lower but funds less plentiful. The council chose the cash in hand.

First reports of the proposed building placed it near the site of the present one, and as far as we have been able to ascertain, there is no change intended. If the council is going ahead with the building, we fail to see what advantage is derived from placing it in a high cost business area in the city of Toronto. A site central to all the county is the more logical.

Apart from the obvious advantage of the cheapness of the site, a location in the central part of the county is in keeping with the function of the council. The Newmarket town council does not meet on Yonge St., nor is the provincial legislature located south of the border. Locating the county council chambers in the city of Toronto is just as unreasonable.

Richmond Hill, Aurora or Newmarket all share the advantages of a central location in the county. With the existing system of roads, there should be no difficulty in reaching any one of these municipalities from the farthest corner of the county. Away from the atmosphere of the city, the council would undoubtedly benefit by a greater awareness of the rural as well as the urban aspects of its jurisdiction.

During the debate on the building proposal, York twp. delegates opposed the project because of the possibility of incorporation. A similar possibility faces the municipalities both to the east and west of Toronto. Should it come to pass, county councillors are going to govern an area far separated from the seat of their authority by miles of city development.

When is added to these disadvantages the lost opportunity of unifying the north and south halves of the county by a county building more centrally located, it is hard to understand that having chosen to build a new county centre, the choice of site was not made with greater concern for these factors.

The Value Of The Health Nurse

The least obtrusive public official in Newmarket is the public health nurse, Miss Clara S. Kittner. She passes unnoticed in daily rounds except by those to whom she gives her services, the school children and mothers at home. Because of this anonymity, it is not generally realized the vast extent of her accomplishments. Her annual report leaves no doubt of the value of her services to Newmarket, the net result of which has been to make this community more conscious of its health, and it follows, more healthy.

Here are figures culled at random from the annual report of the nurse, including half year of Miss Helen B. Gardner and a half year of Miss Kittner: total field nursing visits, 698; total office nursing visits, 120; total families carried, 370 (does not include "false alarm" or where no one was home); number of working hours spent in schools, 385½; in office, 373½; in clinics, 159½; in visiting, 361½; other activities, 120½.

Other figures tell stories in themselves. For example, there were 226 exclusions from school because of communicable diseases. Consider the barrier the regular inspections in the schools by the nurse presents against the spread of communicable diseases. In each of those 226 exclusions, the opportunity for a disease to infect others was limited.

There was an attendance of 428 to the child welfare clinics held during the year where information on diet and child health was propagated with a resultant improvement in the chances of good health for the children whose mothers attended. Or take the 44 physical defects found in children during the total of 233 inspections, including re-inspection and special physicals among the 717 children in elementary schools, defects which stood a better chance of correction when drawn to the attention of parents. Consider the 50 first aid treatments administered in the schools with a consequent lessening of the chances of infection and the other serious difficulties that can arise from even the smallest scratch.

It all adds up to the achievement of higher level of public health in Newmarket. It means, to an increasing degree, a greater emphasis on the care of health, a willingness to turn to the doctor when there is the first indication of illness instead of waiting until the damage is done. But what the figures do not show is a greater sense of security for parents when they realize their children are receiving the advantages of improved public health nursing.

Training To Serve Canada

In Newmarket next week, the boys and girls of the Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs, the Girl Guides and the Brownies will join with some 165,000 comrades across Canada in the annual observance known as Boy Scout—Girl Guide Week. They are proud members of two movements which are training young people in self-reliance with a respect for others regardless of racial or religious beliefs.

The world needs such young people in these troubled times. If the future citizens of Canada can be brought up in the principles that activate Scout and Guide training, the country will be better for it. As a prominent world figure said recently: "If we can impress upon our youth principles of friendliness and mutual respect, we shall go a long way towards establishing a better understanding among nations of the world."

The Scouts and Guides in Newmarket and throughout the nation are in training to serve Canada. They and their leaders deserve every support. Let us see that they get it.

Criticism Unwarranted

There has been some criticism of the choice of some of the executives of the newly-formed Board of Trade. The critics claim that instead of choosing businessmen newly come to Newmarket for the position of president, first vice president and secretary, the choice should have fallen upon men who have been established in Newmarket for many years. The argument is that their long experience in town is a better background for the offices. We disagree. Against the argument presented above there is the advantage of the fresh viewpoint of the more recently arrived and their comparative freedom from a too rigid adherence to local custom.

As it stands now, the present Board of Trade executive offers an excellent combination of experience and a fresh viewpoint which should produce results if given any support from the rest of the business community.

The Aurora town council has shown the way to other North York municipalities in its concern with town planning. At their last session, Aurora councillors unanimously voted to lay aside a sum equivalent to one mill on the tax rate to further the efforts of their town planning committee. Aurora is making an investment in the future which will pay off in a more pleasant community in which to live.

Cat Nips

BY GINGER

I've gotta friend who is night watchcat at the Toronto Star building down in the city. He came up to Newmarket in the back of a fruit truck last Saturday and spent the weekend at the office here. The boss sez I attract too many bums around here but I told him that Chumley was a respectable, hard-working citizen, and I also sez "boss, he works at the Star so you've got to be nice to him." You see, the boss worked at the Star once too.

Well, Chumley and I had a regular old bull session and in the course of it I sez "Chum, just hoppin' all the time, kid?" "Just hoppin' all the time, kid?" he sez and I listen respectfully. "You know, junior, big news-papers is quite the game. Look at you, for instance, you'd be hopelessly lost in one of them city offices. What they need there is speed. You don't sit around and contemplate the wanin' moon or nothin'. Nope, not there. Big news is the stuff. After all, we put out our sheet every day and that takes some hoppin'." You know, kid, I just gotta smile when I look at your place here. Small time, small time.

While Chumley and I talked, we ambled out to the shop among the job presses, composing room and downstairs to the press room where Bert was running off four pages. Chum had smiled at our three linotypes, looked down his nose at the Gordon press and sneered at the Heidelberg and I thought to myself, thank goodness the boss got out when he did. Meanwhile I explained our new press and folder.

"Sheets, eh?" said Chum. "Why you hardly gotta touch our presses. Comes in rolls you know, one endless lot of paper. Pretty quaint place you got here. We've got a circulation all across the country. Must get pretty dull in a small town."

Then it happened. He slipped off the platform into the press. We sent him back in Simpson's truck all inked and folded in two sections.

Heathcliffe has a new pair of brown pants.

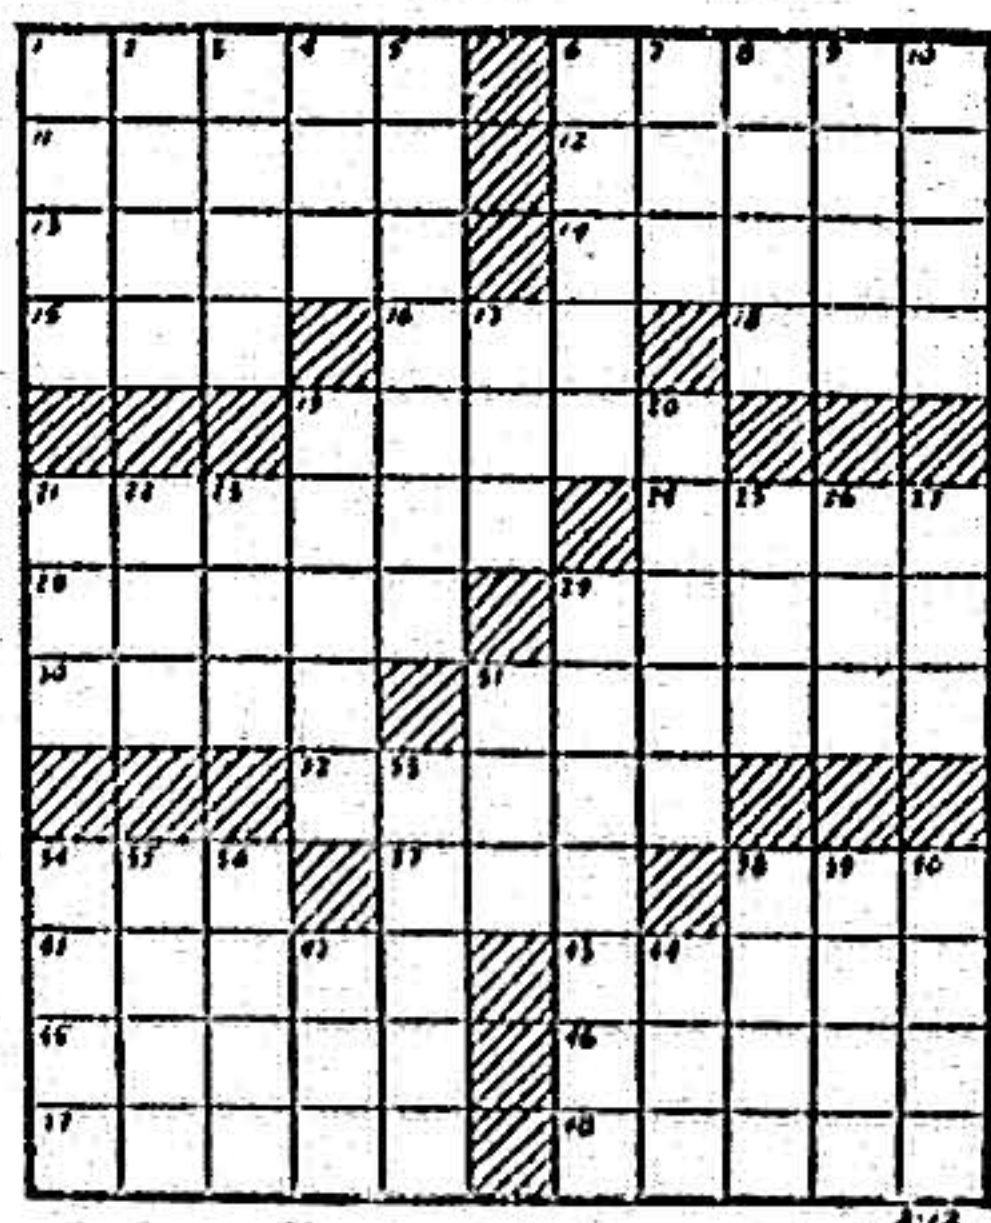

We're slowly getting our office "disensambled." The carpenters are still around but they have lost their prestige and we are finally getting the upper hand once again. But just when the construction boom was beginning to die out, a small squad of Bell Telephone men crept in and started to wire left and right. I have never seen so many feet of wire go into a building for two telephones.

Heathcliffe, the old reporter, was the unfortunate one this week. You know those great big long brace and bits the telephone boys use for drilling holes in the floor? Well, they're about five feet long, and can drill through an inch of wood faster than you can spit. One of the boys, Johnnie McHaggis I think his name was, went downstairs with this long wicked instrument and started to drill up into our office. Seems he miscalculated the position of the partition and I observed the business end of the drill spiralling through space straight for the underside of Heathcliffe's chair.

Heathcliffe has a new pair of brown pants.

The Newmarket Humane Society has a lovely calendar this year, particularly if you like animals. They were late coming out this year and Mrs. S. W. Otton, 59 Lorne Ave., phone 46, still has a supply on hand. Three of the calendars have wings. One shows a goose on an English farm in Kent taking a woolly puppy for a ride on its back. In the second, a baby chick and a kitten make friends, while in the third, a parrot has manoeuvred a puppy into her cage while she struts outside with an air of triumph.

Gleanings From Weekly Press

A literary face-lifting by the Sackville, N.B., Tribune-Post:

"Indeed, the reader who depends on the judgment of the literary critics may justly complain that they are not doing their job. If the labels of 'escapist' and 'social significance' are to be accepted as the low and high marks, respectively, of literary merit, much of the writing that has been accepted as best must be condemned, while works like 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' would go to the head of the list of classics. Which would leave little Eva skating on pretty thin ice!"

It's up to you claims the West-askin, Alta., Times, with this observation:

"The year 1948 will see one of the stiffest tests of the various political and economical systems devised by man. We have a definite, world-wide split between Communism and Democratic Capitalism. If we value the privileges we enjoy under our present system it is time we put some effort into retaining it."

The St. Mary's, Ont., Journal-Argus says the Dominion government is studying a plan to put old-age pensions for all on a contributory basis... claims, with the consent of the provinces it should not be a great task to incorporate such a scheme into the workmen's compensation act set-up and thereby handle all of this work which is really integral by one set of offices and staff.

The Farmers Advocate discusses strikes:

"The points of difference between employers and employees must take second place to what has become the main issue, namely will unions be allowed to evade the law and put force ahead of the Statutes enacted by the Legislature for the good of all the people."

"A child's general attitudes are a reflection of those of his parents," points out the Lachute, Que., Watchman. "If his parents evade their responsibilities, use twisted methods of thinking, have prejudices and intolerances, we can expect the child to reflect the same pattern."

From the shoulder hits the Penticton, B.C., Herald:

"The people who are now shouting the loudest for controlled food prices are the same people who were most vocal, only about seven years ago, when the government undertook to freeze wages at the rates then prevailing. Does anyone propose that the farmers and those business firms which process and distribute food should be regulated and controlled while every other class in the community can charge whatever it can get for its services?"

If the butter shortage persists, suggests the Bridgewater, N.S., Bulletin, "it may be that the demand for margarine may become so insistent that Ottawa may consider it necessary to remove the restrictions. Canada seems to be the only country that holds out against it."

If Newmarket Should Get a Bus Line Just Like Toronto

Scene: Lorne Ave. at 6 a.m. as the McGuire bus takes its first load of the day. Jack and Joe hurry up the street, swinging aboard in time to get the last two seats. The loaded bus starts off.

Jack, opening his newspaper and turning to the sports page: "Lucky eh? Got the last two seats."

Joe: "Yeah, we're lucky." The bus stops and two girls dressed in slacks climb aboard. "Oh," says the first with dismay in her voice, "there isn't a seat." They move hopefully down the aisle and come to a stop in front of Jack and Joe.

First girl repeats, loud enough to be heard the length of the bus, "Oh dear, there aren't any seats. We'll have to stand."

Second girl: "Maybe some gentleman will offer us his seat."

Jack peers out from behind his paper, notes the slacks and jerks his head back muttering under his breath. Joe stares fixedly out the window, pretends he doesn't hear them.

They try again. "Newmarket men are so courteous. The way they give a girl their seat on the bus..." Her voice trails off on a hopeful note.

Jack, from behind the paper: "Want our seats, do they. Could've taken a later bus, let an honest working man have a bit of rest before starting the day. Could stand in front of someone else. Why pick on us?" He holds his paper higher and reads with great concentration.

Joe continues to stare out the window.

The bus lurches around the corner and the girls stumble. First girl steps heavily on Joe's foot. "Oh I am so sorry," she says sweetly. Joe stifles a groan, continues to look out the window.

Second girl: "Yesterday morning two men offered me their seat on the bus. They were so gentlemanly."

Joe, still staring out the window: "That's a woman for you. Wants her cake and bread and butter too. Always hollering about women's equality. Treat her like a man and she yells to high heaven. Equality of sexes. Yah."

Bus swings around another corner. One of the girls jams her elbow through Jack's paper and knocks his hat off. He replaces his hat, muttering under his breath. Straightens out his paper. Just comfortably settled when he reaches his stop.

He and Joe get up to leave as one of the girls says to the other in a loud voice as they slide into the vacant seats: "You meet such rude men on the bus."

This week is being observed as White Canoe Week, a reminder that the sightless figures we see on our streets occasionally are deserving of our every assistance and co-operation. Sometimes we are inclined to pity the handicap, to the forgetfulness of the individual. Sightless persons are not subjects of charity. They earn their own way. But they need our assistance; not in charity, but as one neighbor to another.

A friend of ours is without his sight yet for many years he was an editor of a small daily newspaper. More recently, he has been active in a job placement service and at present he is enjoying a vacation in Havana. Does he sound like someone deserving pity? And there are thousands like him, men and women who, despite their handicap, have been able to make full and useful lives for themselves.

The men and women who carry the white canes are not being set apart. They seek to enter every phase of ordinary life, finding their way with their white canes, hoping that those who can see will regard them as the normal citizens they are. White Canoe Week is to remind us of these things.

The Editor: The contract covering our 1948 advertising with your publication has been received and we look forward to another year of pleasant business relations.

Salada Tea sales for 1947 showed a substantial increase for the third consecutive year, the total being almost double the average annual sales from 1935 to 1939. As we have said many times before, we attribute a great deal of the credit for this amazing growth to the high quality of our tea coupled with a newspaper advertising program almost continuously maintained since 1892.

Please accept our thanks for your part as a newspaper publisher, in bringing Salada Tea so effectively to the attention of the buying public in 1947, and all our best wishes for the new year.

OTTAWA LETTER

by

"Jack" Smith, M.P.
North York

The debate on the government motion to set up a committee to investigate the rising cost of living continued much longer than anticipated. This is a problem of first concern to the people of Canada and the government was hopeful that the resolution setting up the committee might be passed quickly so the committee could get down to its important work without delay. The opposition, which too often takes the view that its sole function is to "oppose," held up the appointment of the committee for several days to no good or useful purpose.

The opposition parties opposed the appointment of the committee on the weak grounds that the government was endeavoring to shirk its responsibilities. On the contrary, the government was giving the elected representatives of the people of all political parties, the free opportunity to investigate this all-important question of rising prices.

The committee's duties are to examine and to report from time to time as to (a) the causes of the recent rise in the cost of living; (b) prices which have been raised above levels justified by increased costs; (c) the rising in prices due to the acquiring, accumulating or withholding from sale by any persons, firms or corporations of any goods beyond amounts reasonably required for the ordinary purposes of their businesses.

That the people's representatives should inquire into such matters is, I am sure, the wish of the Canadian people. Nothing but good can come from the deliberations of such a committee, and whatever the outcome, the information gleaned will be reassuring and enlightening to the people of Canada. It seemed to me most unfortunate that any of the political parties should seek to make political capital and gain out of the present conditions so vitally touching the lives of all Canadians.

Not Limited To Canada

The problem of rising prices is not in any way peculiar to Canada but is a problem affecting every country in the world. This should be borne in mind by our people and by those political parties now seeking to make political gain from the situation.

The opposition parties put every conceivable stumbling block in the way of the appointment of this committee, but it finally has been appointed and is working hard at the task given it by parliament.

The hope of the government is that it will undertake its work with speed and thoroughness—let the chips fall where they may. The increased cost of living is one of the most challenging problems we have found in the post-war era. While it is a challenging problem it is much to be preferred to that faced by many countries and I am sure we will be able to meet it and solve it in a manner in keeping with the successful manner we met the problem of war.

Pensions

The need for increases in pensions and veterans' allowances is receiving careful study by the Government at the moment. Just as soon as current measures before the House are dealt with, legislation will be introduced providing for substantial increases. Many of my North York friends have expressed concern over the announcement concerning proposed increases made prior to Christmas. I wish to assure them that there is every indication that when the actual legislation is introduced it will provide a substantial increase right across the board for all pensioners, widows and dependent children. The increases will be made retroactive.

The Veterans' Charter given by Canada was representative of the determination of the Canadian people to do the right thing by those who were called on for very special service and sacrifice in World War II. Let me assure my readers the present Government has no wish or intention to change its course in doing the best for our war veterans and their dependents.

SHARON Urges Subsidies To Hold Prices

Sharon Farm Forum met Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Newthro. Topic for discussion was "What prices shall we ask?"
It was decided that food subsidies be established as a long-term policy to keep prices down to the consumer without lowering the farmer's return. The assurance of pre-determined prices for a set period of time would make for stability.
Ways of establishing satisfactory farm prices were thought to be through marketing schemes and co-operatives. Because of the power of organized agriculture we would have control over our own economic destiny.
The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Hall.
UNION ST.

The Stevens sisters visited their parents over the weekend.

"We want you to know how much we have appreciated your friendship, and when you leave us, we are going to lose a good neighbor. Your willingness to help, despite the many duties of your own busy life, wherever there was a need, has been appreciated by us all." Mrs. Cunningham is moving to Keswick. She replied in a very appreciative way to her neighbors for their kind thoughtfulness of her.
Mr. and Mrs. John Alleyne visited friends in Aurora on Sunday afternoon.

D. F. Jarvis Sale
Brings In $12,000

The auction sale of D. F.
Jarvis, north of Queensville, last Thursday, drew a large crowd from many parts of the country.
Cars and trucks were parked a mile in both directions. The sale totalled over $12,000, and was conducted by Sellars and Atkinson, auctioneers from Stouffville. The cattle and hogs sold well, young sows going at $70 each and young heifers at $75; the tractor at $1,300; a plow at $165. The 50 head of cattle passed through the auction ring in 90 minutes.

The Queensville W.A. served refreshments which were greatly appreciated. The farm was sold and Mr. Jarvis is moving to Bradford.

EIGHT-YEAR-OLD RECORD

sey cow bred and owned by completed an eight-year-old record in 305 days of 8,293 lbs. milk, 400 lbs. fat with an average test of 4.82 percent. Northview

Belle is a daughter of Edgely Wellborn Cow, formerly at the head of the Sheardon herd and is a half-sister of the Grand Champion cow at Waterloo Dairy Cattle Conference, Iowa, in 1947, one of the outstanding Jersey shows on the continent.

COMPLETES RECORD

A. N. Moffatt Given
4-Month Term

"I have taken into consideration everything you have said about his previous good record but that does not excuse him for putting others in danger. He put a lot of people in hospital and his mother in the grave," Mr.
Justice Urquhart said to C. H.
Kerr, counsel for defence, as he sentenced Alexander N. Moffatt, Holland Landing, to four months in the reformatory following Moffatt's conviction of dangerous driving by an Assize Court jury recently. Moffatt was tried for manslaughter but the verdict convicting him of the lesser charge was returned by the jury after five hours' deliberation.
Mrs. Amy E. Moffatt was killed and others were critically injured in an accident near Bradford on October 25. Evidence revealed that Moffatt, who had been driving one of the cars, had been drinking prior to the accident. C. H. Kerr, counsel for the defendant, said that Moffatt had served four and a half years in the Canadian army during the war, that he was married and had a six-months-old child and that his record had been hitherto clear. He asked for a suspended sentence.

"It is not in my power to suspend sentence," Mr. Justice Urquhart said. "This is one of the worst cases of dangerous driving that I have tried during ten years on the bench."

Mrs. Sarah Smalley
Dies Feb. 10

ness of three weeks. Funeral

ried George Franklin Smalley her Feb. 18, 1899. The couple had two sons, Ralph Albert, Chatham, and Franklin W. Toronto, and a daughter, Lillian E.

Smalley, Newmarket, who survive their mother.

Milton E. Travis, Sault Ste.
Marie, and two sisters, Mrs. H.

Valentine dance under the auspices of Branch 426 will be held at the Newmarket high school.
Don Gilkes' orchestra will provide the music. Refreshments bert team played Newmarket at

Items of Interest

It is interesting to learn that a total of 211,818 World War II veterans have now been given unemployment insurance protection. The Department of Veterans' Affairs has deposited on their behalf with the Unemployment Insurance Commission a total of $17,000,490 up to October 31, 1947. It is expected that ultimately the D.V.A. will make payments totalling about $47-500,000 on behalf of approximately 500,000 veterans.

Under the Veterans' Rehabilitation Act a veteran that has been in insurable employment for 90 days is entitled to have unemployment insurance payments made for him for the entire period of his service subsequent to the passing of the Unemployment Insurance Act.

For example, in the case of a veteran who enlisted before July 1, 1941—if he entered insurable employment immediately on his discharge and has continued to be employed he would now have more than six years of unemployment insurance payments to his credit with the commission.

This means that in the event of becoming unemployed he can draw, if married, $14.40 per week, and if single, he would receive $12.24 per week.

Name Ted Gould
Recreation President

Newmarket—Ted Gould became chairman of the Newmarket Recreation Commission at a meeting on Tuesday night when an election of officers was held.
New vice chairman is J. B.
Walker, treasurer, Bert Budd and
sec. Mrs. D. L. Brown.

The following were elected chairman of special groups:
handicraft, Mrs. N. L. Mathews; field sports, J. B. Walker; arts,
Ted Gould and affiliated activities,
Mrs. Seldon. No committee chairman was appointed for budget and by-laws at the meeting.
Bert Morrison suggested that the by-laws and constitution be checked over and brought up to date.

Newmarket C. of C.
Announces Dinner

Newmarket—The executive of the newly formed Chamber of Commerce announced this week that the first public function of the new body would be an inaugural dinner on March 1.
Plans are already well advanced and arrangements have been made to have a guest speaker from the Canadian Chamber of Commerce who will discuss the chamber's doings and success in other towns throughout Ontario.

Of general interest also is the decision of the board of directors to recommend the title, "Chamber of Commerce" in place of the first considered name, Board of Trade. It is the opinion of the directors that the new title is more accurate in describing the scope and interests of the group.

ON THE ALLEYS

INSPECT ARENA
Newmarket—Dr. L. W. Dales, medical officer of health, and Dr.
J. Gordon Cook, chairman of the board of health, reported that the washroom facilities at the arena were in fair condition and could not be greatly improved by the lessee without extensive changes in the heating facilities which is the responsibility of the owners. Chief complaint was lack of proper and safe heating facilities. The arena is owned by the town.

Banquet Permits Discussed By W.C.T.U.

Newmarket — The regular meeting of the W.C.T.U. was held at the home of Mrs. H. Molyneux with the vice president, Mrs. M. Eade, in the chair. Mrs. Ernest Morton gave the devotional exercises.

The secretary, Miss L. Starr, brought to the attention of the meeting that organizations may obtain banquet permits which are issued in dry areas. A permit obtained two weeks in advance of a banquet may be given for double the number of guests finally attending. This either means excessive drinking or the possibility of the liquor being sold illegally at some other time although all unused liquor is supposed to be returned but there is no check-up after.

Reference was made to the appeal from Cardinal McGuigan to all Roman Catholics of the Toronto archdiocese to abstain from alcoholic beverages during Lent. They are to promise not only that they will not drink but that they will not serve it or frequent places where such beverages are served and that all money that would otherwise be spent in this way be devoted to alms giving.

Mrs. J. A. Maitland gave the story of the life of Frances Willard, the founder of the World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union. A dialogue, "Why do we need the W.C.T.U.?" was given by Mrs. E. Morton, Mrs. J. A. Maitland and Miss L. Starr. A collection was taken for World Missions.

Seek Cotton Prices For Bandages

Newmarket — An appeal has been made by the Society of Friends for contributions of clean, white cotton suitable for dressings and bandages in devastated countries abroad. All contributions are forwarded to Toronto where they are sterilized and prepared for shipment by the Society. Francis Starr, Bogartown, who is now in India, and Barbara Walker, well known visitor to Newmarket who is now in Poland, in their recent letters requested more bandages and dressings to help relieve the desperate shortage of white cotton in these countries.

Miss Walker told of mothers using newspapers for babies' diapers and of visiting homes where children with open sores have nothing to use for bandages. Every home in Newmarket could contribute a worn sheet or pillow case.

All interested contributors are requested to bring their bundles of clean, white cotton pieces to the next meeting of the Home and School Association at Trinity United church on Tuesday, Feb. 24, at 8 p.m.

Young Hopefuls

By DOROTHY MUIR BOWMAN

Wally is ten years old and a fast-growing child. His parents are confronted with the problem of whether or not to let him skip a grade. The work is so easy for him that he finishes in half the usual time after which, he becomes a nuisance to the teacher and classmates; but more especially to himself.

To allow Wally to skip a grade would not solve the problem. That is not the way to enrich such a child's powers and culture. Courses of study are planned with the purpose of developing the mind. No fundamental subjects should be omitted in any grade. Children should complete the full course in arithmetic, reading, language, history, geography and science.

To skip grades means to skip development, technique, and skills. Fortunately, most school systems have dispensed with skipping the bright child and are dealing with him in his own grade.

One of the simplest ways to occupy the fast-moving child is to give him an extra book to read, assign a written report of it, then set aside classroom time for an oral report. Another appropriate way to occupy the bright child's leisure time is with current newspapers or periodicals; and, besides written reports on current events, there should be an opportunity to make an oral report, thus enriching the minds of the classmates as well as his own.

Good schools teach children how to live—that takes time. If growth is to be wholesome and achievement worthy, children must have their full growing time. The bright child needs more and richer mental food, but he also needs time to digest and apply it to his good.

There's no use cramming facts. The good teacher instills quality of thought, of word, and of achievement.

Wally would truly be an unhappy misfit among boys and girls who are older in experience and more mature in character and habits. He needs the companionship of his own grade.

LIBRARY CORNER

By CAROLINE E. ION

Available at the Newmarket Public Library is "The Chequer Board," by Nevil Shute, the author of such well remembered favorites as "Pied Piper," "Most Secret." It was published by McClelland and Stewart, Limited, 1947.

This fascinating novel will have a particular appeal to all ex-service personnel. For with men who were brought together through the war and since being discharged have been scattered to the various parts of the world, there will always remain the desire to renew those old wartime acquaintances—to find out just how the other man is faring.

In this latest story Nevil Shute does just that with four men who had been brought together in 1943 under extremely unusual circumstances. It is a totally absorbing book which will give readers more than a faint glimpse of what the brotherhood of man might mean. Amusingly told in Shute's characteristically humorous style, "The Chequer Board," is well worth reading.

The Common Round...

By Isabel Inglis Colville

JUST ONE MORE OPINION

This question of religious teaching or rather of education in Christian living for children has come to assume an importance which it has long been without.

To the parents of us older people, it presented no problem. We were taught our prayers as soon as we could lip them. Sometimes, speaking for myself, I rebelled at saying them, then it developed into a case of who could hold out longest. Mother sometimes it was a trial of patience, when I insisted on praying for every imaginable thing or person. But in my childish way I had a vague idea that Someone like father, only magnified a thousand times, listened to me; and if I was good He heard me and if I was bad He saw me and was sorry.

Then on Sundays, after Sunday-school I was set down on the floor with the big family Bible and I enjoyed, or suffered, over the pictures and was told the stories attached to those pictures. I formed ideas in my own mind then of the characters pictured, Moses, Joseph, Daniel, John the Baptist and the Lord Jesus Christ which have stayed with me through the years.

The pictures of Jesus as a child and as a man were all mixed up with one of the first hymns I learned, There's a Friend of Little Children.

So it was as a friend that I was introduced to Christ and through Him to God. And to me, that is the only way a child can come to know and love the Christian way of life.

A dim God—Jehovah—only confuses and frightens a child. They feel that He is waiting to pounce on them for their faults, that He is so perfect that imperfections cannot expect forgiveness. It is only as they learn that God is a Father, through "The Friend for little children", that they can learn to love, honor and obey Him.

All of us try to please only as we love. Obedience through fear can never be whole-hearted. So it's only as we can teach children the beauty and patience, the truth and purity of the Babe of Bethlehem that we can hope to have Him influence them to try and be like Him.

Children are the greatest imitators on earth. If they love anyone, they try to be like them. They will fashion even their speech and actions after the beloved pattern. Parents and teachers have a marvellous opportunity in the homes and schools to live the Christ life, in order that it will be so attractive that children will see its beauty and want to find the source.

Every one of us who professes to follow Christ has a terrible responsibility, for no matter how much we are urged to look only at the root of Christian living, we, the branches, are what it is judged by. So it seems to me that the question of the child and Christianity boils down to the need for the parents to make their children acquainted with the most wonderful Child who ever lived and if they, the parents, show what knowing Christ has done for them, then the children will begin to think for themselves.

We underestimate a child's intelligence. Show them how, even as a little child, Christ was obedient and they will appreciate it. Let them feel that when they pray, they do not just repeat a set of words, but that they talk to God and that, if they bring all their small troubles and sorrows and joys to Him, He will hear and comfort and rejoice with them.

So, to me the only way for a child to approach Christianity is to feel the Fatherhood of God and the friendliness of Christ.

CANADIAN PLOWMEN ABROAD
By W. L. CLARK * President
ONTARIO PLOWMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Cambridge—Spring is here in the British Isles. As I write this letter, it is a beautiful morning, much like early May or late April days in Ontario. We are keeping our fingers crossed that this fine weather will continue so that the plowing contests can take place as scheduled.

In the last letter I told you about our adventures up to the time we sailed from New York. Let me tell you what has happened since then. After arrival in Southampton, we spent three days sight-seeing in London and on top of it all, we managed to see a circus which is still in London and which we enjoyed.

Windsor and the King's Farm
On our fourth day in Windsor, we set out for Windsor, a distance of some 30 miles, where we were taken on an extended tour of the castle. After lunch, we were shown over the King's farm where we saw some fine cattle. Before the war beef cattle was the principal herd but it has been reduced to some extent and the herd of milking Shorthorns and Jerseys has been increased.

There are some good Yorkshire hogs on the farm. The manager showed us a young hog which he had just purchased for the improvement of the herd. The price, approximately $400, looks like a lot of money to Canadian farmers. The manager also told us that the minimum weekly farm wage for an eight-hour day is about $18.

The next day we left London by car for Cambridge, about 60 miles away. We drove through a stretch of good farming land such as we would see on a drive from Toronto to Lindsay. There are, however, no bank barns here. The crop is all in stacks round about low-roofed cow byers and sheds. Most of the stacks and quite a number of roofs are thatched. We were told that a well thatched roof would last 40 years, so why buy shingles at the price today?

Chivers and Sons' Farm
From Cambridge, we went to the farm of Chivers and Sons at Histon. This farm covers several thousand acres and is one of the largest in England. A jam factory is operated in connection with the farm and most of the fruit used is grown on the property. Chivers and Sons also specialize in Percheron horses, dairy Shorthorns, Jerseys and large white or Yorkshire hogs. In number and quality, I have never seen their equal. You may be interested to know something about their Percheron sales. One champion mare sold for approximately $4,000; a gelding for approximately $1,500; and a filly foal for approximately $590. As for the large white hogs, each spring they sell by auction about 100 young gills. We saw the ones they are getting ready for this spring and they are a choice lot. They expect to realize $295 each for them which is a pretty good price. Four young boars, all from one litter, were recently sold for $4,000. The milking Shorthorns and Jerseys conform to type and are making records of from 10,000 to 20,000 lbs. per year. However, they just have 450 head of Shorthorns and 300 head of Jerseys.

We are leaving here tomorrow for Worthington where the boys will take part in the plowing match. I know you will be interested in the match so I shall tell you as much as possible about it in the next letter.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT
Remand O'Brien
On Hold-Up Charge

Newmarket—Jos. Edward O'Brien was remanded in Magistrate's Court on Friday for one week after the hearing of a charge of attempting to steal and unlawfully demanding a sum of money from Mrs. Maude Needler, 222 Main St., on January 31.

When asked what his plea was, the accused said "I don't know". He said that he had been drinking for two or three weeks before he was arrested and did not remember the attempted hold-up.

Mrs. Needler said O'Brien came into the store and asked for change for a $20 bill and when she refused, he asked for change for a $10 bill. She said the accused had both hands in his pockets. He took one hand out and said "this is a hold-up, give me those bills," but he showed no gun. Mrs. Needler said she screamed and the accused ran out the door.

A charge of theft of two saddles and two bridles, property of John Bosworth, Whitechurch twp., laid against Roberts Dr. Henderson, York Downs Dr., Toronto, was dismissed. A charge of possession of stolen goods laid jointly against Henderson and Richard Joseph Brand was adjourned for two weeks.

John Bosworth said that the equipment could not be bought new at the present time and he would not sell it for $75. He said the accused, Henderson, lived near him at one time. Some of the equipment was recovered by Detective Martindale at Brand's stable and the rest at a livery stable in Toronto, owned by L. Ehrlich. Brand said the equipment came from Henderson, who claimed he bought it from a man named Newman, whose address was Aurora P.O. He produced a receipt with that signature and address.

Detective Martindale had found no one by that name in the Aurora district and the accused said himself that he tried to locate the man again but without success. Crown Attorney Archibald Armstrong asked the accused to sign the name Newman three times and had it filed as an exhibit with the receipt.

Brand said that Henderson worked for him and had brought the equipment to his stable and that later he had made a deal with L. Ehrlich for Henderson, receiving an army saddle and $5 for one of the saddles. He said that Henderson gave him the $5 for payment on feed for a horse.

Elect Howard Hugo
Hort. Soc. President

Newmarket—At the annual meeting of the Newmarket Horticultural Society in Trinity United church recreation room recently, R. D. Little, Richmond Hill, district five director of the Ontario Horticultural Association, took the chair for the election of officers which saw the following elected:

Pres., Howard Hugo; first vice pres., Eugene McCaffrey; second vice pres., Frank Hastings; secretary, Mrs. Nelson Ion; director for one year to fill the vacancy left by E. The president presented a report of the activities of the society for the past year which included the holding of seven board meetings with two visiting special speakers, three flower shows and a juvenile show, a public speaking contest and an art contest open to the school children. Two delegates were sent to the annual convention of the Ontario Horticultural Association at Niagara Falls in March.

Civic improvement included the replacing of shrubs by the Women's rest room, Botsford St., the planting of flower beds around town and the flower boxes at the municipal building. Over 400 bulbs were presented to the four primary schools where they were grown by the children in the class rooms.

To conclude the meeting, Mr. Little presented a collection of technicolor slides which featured many beautiful pictures of the iris in his Richmond Hill garden.

THE VEIN proves rich, a shaft is sunk, and a new mining town springs into life. The main street takes form. Commercial buildings rise.

When such a development occurs, the services of a bank are needed — to handle payrolls, to keep savings accounts and, as the town grows, to furnish bank credit for the needs of the community.

This is a basic pattern in Canada's development. And part of it is the local bank manager, providing those financial services which help Canadian men and women to win the rewards of modern enterprise and modern living.

THIS IS ONE INSTANCE OF how Canada's 3,200 branch banks play their part in the daily life and work of Canadians.

OUR TOMORROWS depend on what happens to the world's children TODAY. In ruined lands around the globe there are millions of them in misery — scrambling for shreds of food on garbage dumps, shivering in rags. On the continent of Europe, half the children born since the war are already dead of malnutrition. Those who survive — there and elsewhere — are desperately in need of food and clothing. They need schooling, too, for their neglected minds grow as sick as their withered bodies.

Canadian Appeal for Children is now conducting its campaign to meet the challenge of these desperate and immediate needs. ## Hockey Briefs

By GEO. HASKETT, JR.

If you can believe what you hear, Friday's clash at Whitby between our Lions and Whitby must have been a wild and woolly affair. The Lions were over there in the first round of the Ontario Minor Hockey Association playdowns. All accounts coming out of Whitby indicate a regular donnybrook. 'Tis said that in the final period, when the battle in which players and spectators mixed, the arena lights had to be doused to restore calm. While the lights were out, someone carted away several of the Lions spare shooting irons. Small wonder that a further rukus ensued. One thing is certain, the more the Whitby players argued, the more goals the Lions scored. The Lions came home with a seven-goal lead as they recorded a 12-5 triumph. The O.M.H.A., when it comes to their attention, will most likely take a dim view of the treatment accorded a visiting team and may have something to say to the rink management at Whitby on this score.

Two of Newmarket's five hockey teams will have to sit it out from now on, the Legion midgets and Jim Walker's bantams. They tasted the elimination Saturday afternoon at the hands of Whitby. Both teams put up a battling display before going out. The bantams held Whitby to 4-7. In both instances it was their loss at home that sent our youngest representatives for provincial honors into the discard. With the midgets, it was the first period at home that proved their downfall. Whitby parking four goals into our net in the first 15 minutes. After that the Legion shaded the Whitby Maple Leafs by a slight margin. Certainly Newmarket fans can be proud of the way their two teams performed. A big vote of thanks is due to Jim Walker of the Bantams, and Coach Larry Molyneux and Manager Gord. Ough of the midgets for their work with these lads. All we lack locally now is a pee-wee team to put Newmarket back on the hockey map.

It's playoff time for our intermediate pals. Hoffman's will get down to the serious business of settling with Collingwood "Shipbuilders" tonight, who is to meet Penetang "Canadiens" for the group championship. They go at it here tonight, hit the ice lanes again Monday in the Georgian Bay arena, and the third game, if required, must be settled in Collingwood Wednesday, Feb. 18. The "Shipbuilders" get the call for the third game because of their higher standing in the group. It goes without much guessing on our part that the "Shipbuilders" will have their sights set on leaving here with a win. What are our chances of surprising them? Coach Bill Thoms has his hand at their peak. Hoffman's proved this with a pleasing 5-3 win over the second-place Barrie "Colts" last Thursday. Certainly our squad has a tough row to skate. Collingwood knocked us off twice in the regular schedule. Playoffs are another thing however and they will be up against a much tougher Hoffman club. If, and perhaps it's a big if, we can knock off Collingwood it will be interesting to see which of the club mentors, Dewey Kuhns or Doug Campbell, will be able to outsmile the other. All that Hoffman needs from the

LIKELY LAST VISIT

Tonight Newmarket Gapcos will pay what is likely their last visit of the season to Aurora. Under a new plan devised on Sunday by club representatives, the four clubs are now engaged in a round-robin series with the top two teams qualifying for the group finals. Every game thus is of extreme importance to all teams. The final round will be a best three of five series, so the schedule originally arranged stands.

IN SECOND ROUND

Charlie Rountree's Woodbridge juveniles have advanced through the first round of the O.M.H.A. "C" playoffs. The Woodbridge boys eliminated Orangeville 9-5 on the round.

Midgets Lose Round To Whitby 13-12

By GEO. HASKETT, JR.

The Legion midgets were nudged out of the O.M.H.A. playdowns Saturday. They came up with a 7-7 tie at Whitby but it was not enough. Previously Whitby had snatched a close 6-5 win in Newmarket. This proved their margin of victory, taking the total goal series by a 13-12 count.

At Whitby Saturday the Legion squad had the round tied up on at least three occasions. Smack off the starting whistle "Huck" McHale drove a shot into the Whitby cage. Keith MacDonald and "Laddie" Lyons, the latter proving to be the Whitby hero with a four-goal display, moved the Maple Leafs into the lead once again. "Pepper" Martin, giving out for the Legion, tied up the game at the 17-minute mark when he waltzed in for an unassisted marker.

Centre ice star Bill Smith, almost single-handed kept the Legion in the hunt throughout the middle frame. Three times he clicked for goals. "Ron" Covey gave him the pass on the first and Walter "Hurry" Cain was the helper on another of his goals. So it was a tied game after 40 minutes.

Right winger Don Duncan, who is having a busy time of it in the hockey whirl, appearing on both midget and juvenile lineups, gave the Legion a goal early in the final chapter. The lead was short-lived, however, as Keith MacDonald of the Maple Leafs dropped one into the Newmarket cage 30 seconds later.

At 10:44 the Legion hopes were once again lifted, Ian Brown shooting a high one from the blueline that ended in the Whitby citadel. That knotted the round once again. Fate, so far as the Legion were concerned, took a turn for the worse. With less than two minutes remaining Johnny Lowe sent a short drive past John Stickland for the game tying tally. It was this one that eliminated our Legion hopefuls.

The Legion laddies battled all the way. They were every bit as good as Whitby. What caused their downfall was the first period at home when Whitby sank four shots in the first 15 minutes.

Coach Larry Molyneux, manager Gord Ough, Dr. Vander Voort, Aubrey Marshall, Arnold Molyneux, Grant Dillane and trainers Milt Wesley and Vince Cain and all the others connected with the club deserve a big hand from the hockey fraternity for their part in the proceedings. More power to you. Next year will be a different story.

Bantams Ousted Despite Comeback

By GEO. HASKETT, JR.

Jim Walker's Newmarket bantams will have to hang up their hockey equipment as far as the O.M.H.A. is concerned. The Walker squad didn't go out without putting up quite a struggle. After dropping a 7-1 decision at home to Whitby the 56'ers rebounded back to hold the speedy Whitby Saturday afternoon.

Newmarket was every bit as good as Whitby Saturday. At one stage, Whitby was on the short end of a four to one count, Don Barker, Wayne Robinson, Frank Morton and Bobbie Forhan doing the scoring, but the local mites couldn't hold the margin. Whitby came back strong, Morley Bradford slapping home a late middle period tally. In the final period Whitby came up with two scoring thrusts to earn a tie on the game.

Monday evening at the Cedar St. Gardens Jim Walker sent his 56'ers out against Ted Weale's Black Hawks from Iceland rink. It was billed as an exhibition fixture and the local sextet came away with their first win, 4-2, with three goals in the final session. Wayne Robinson led the scoring with three, Bobbie Forhan getting the other. Don Barker and "Sonny" Crocker earned assists. Dave Pallister chalked up the tallies for the visitors.

Miami Drawing Good Crowds

Miami indoor bowling is holding the interest of the lawn bowling fans night after night. The rink competition is nearing its end with Chantler leading the field. Law is in second place.

The doubles have started with four groups of five pairs each. Jersey Joe Courtney with Goring defeated Cumber and Brammer while Law lost to Chantler on an extra end after taking six from Fred on the 13th end. Old Silver King drew a near perfect shot on the last end to tie the score and won by a shot on an extra end. It was a real exhibition of good draw bowling.

Next Saturday Bell plays Little at 1:30 p.m. and Mursion plays Jelley at 3 p.m. There are 20 pairs in this tournament and Del says the great Gibney is expected to take the field. Good luck and good bowling. You can't always win!

First Three Daughters Win Gold Medals

The Jersey bull, Smilax Excellence of S.S.F. -104409-, qualified some time ago for a silver medal certificate and now, through three high record daughters, has been awarded a gold medal certificate by the Canadian Jersey Cattle club. Smilax was bred by Frederick F. Luchinger, Syracuse, N.Y., and is owned by Mrs. Alice Hawkes Robinson, Newmarket.

The three daughters that have qualified Smilax Excellence of S.S.F. as Canada's 30th gold medal bull are Inniscarra Smilax Butterball -151951- that as a junior three-year-old produced 13-170 lbs. of milk, 636 lbs. of fat, with an average test of 4.83 percent in 305 days; Fantan Smilax Floss of milk, 628 lbs. of fat, 4.85 percent test as a junior three-year-old in 305 days; Inniscarra Smilax Sallie -142638-, also on test as a junior three-year-old, produced 11,354 lbs. of milk, 626 lbs. of fat, with an average test of 5.51 percent in 305 days, also milked three times daily. These are the first three daughters of Smilax to freshen and have all eventually won gold medal certificates and the Canadian Jersey Cattle club believes that this is the first time that such an outstanding performance on the first three daughters of a bull has ever occurred in Canada.

A FEW $64 QUESTIONS

While there's no jackpot award provided, there are a few bits of information the sports-minded lads and lassies in the neighborhood wouldn't mind knowing the answers to at this stage. For instance: is it true that Maurice "Fireman" Walsh, the elongated first-sacker of Newmarket Vets footballers and hockey referee extraordinaire, is considering a journey to Halifax for a spot of baseball come the balmy breezes? The rumor comes from both Toronto and the east coast. "Say it isn't so, Mo!" Just how good is the King's Plate entry of Dark Colores of John Stuart? The three-year-old filly is wintering nicely at Markham and has good blood lines. She rates heavy in the winter broods and while the record made as two-year-old is nothing startling, it's about time for Stuart to produce a winner in the classic. Who are the players presently performing for the Victoria Square who are said to have been sung a siren song prior to the season's opening by Aurora Flyers' officials? Naturally Aurora made an effort to hold Jack Atkinson but outside of Polly Minton, not even a gesture was made in the direction of others according to maestro Leonard Simmons. Minton in the summertime said he was out of work and Simmons offered him a job but it wasn't pursued beyond that. Perhaps with the advent of Atkinson to the Square line-up feeling between the club executives will be improved. When will the N.H.L. clubs give Joint McComb a break? With a tail-end club and a shifting playing roster, McComb has done just about everything asked of him by St. Louis Flyers. After a poor start, the ex-Aurora junior has moved up rapidly in the scoring race and he's not far from the leaders now. His penalties have been less than in other years and there are at least two big league clubs who have been looking over the situation. Here's hoping McComb strikes gold.

How long will it be before Messrs. Doug May and Hal Rogers call the mushballers together to plan the season's activities? If the proposed "open series" is to materialize the clubs should be at the starting line soon, so that both clubs and fans will get a break. On the subject of softball, will the silence be broken soon regarding flood lights for both Newmarket and Schomberg? We hope that it wasn't simply a case of rose-colored glasses on the part of one or two individuals. Can it be that the executives of the Uxbridge bush league are going to allow their compact, crowd-pleasing circuit to be broken up by imports? Some of the clubs are trotting out newcomers in recent games who weren't eligible in the original league specifications and getting away with it. No one knows where the move will end if allowed to continue. 'Twas ever thus, however, when the chips are down in outlay circuits. Just where is the fountain of youth located? We don't know but the 1948 hockey season certainly makes it look as if some of the boys must have accomplished what old Ponce de Leon failed to do. Sonny Townsley and Larry Cain, two former canal-town puckchasers of the mid '20's, are still in action and going mightily good. Sonny, "the mighty atom", is with Acton intermediates. "Farmer" is one of the sponsors of the Collingwood intermediate B entry (not to be confused with the entry in the district O.H.A. group) and as occasion demands he dons the blades to help out his proteges. We have already mentioned on more than one occasion, Sib Brodeur, the clever centre of Penetang Canadiens, now in his 22nd straight year of play and the equal of any pivot in the circuit. Add to that George Grant, ex-Detroit Olympics, who is playing intermediate with Paisley Flyers and counts this his 32nd year of competition. There are others we might mention, too.

Will the jinx of alternating goalies catch up with Victoria Square? As you've probably noticed, Ike Harper uses Dougie Moore, last year's netminder, and the more experienced custodian, Norm Stunden, in every other game. Moore, we thought, turned in a weak effort against Aurora last Thursday while Stunden wasn't as sharp as we've seen him in the previous game. It's nice to have two goalies, but sooner or later, a choice for the regular post has to be made. There's always the danger of friction and of players favoring one aspirant over the other; as well as the lack of steady play. It doesn't work with Aurora using Smith and Kyle. It's failed in the past for Maple Leafs, Canadiens, Black Hawks, Rangers, Aurora (Tunney and McGhee), Newmarket (Corbett and Ames), and we could go on. We don't envy Harper his choice. Have they learned games can't be won in the penalty box? That's one for the members of Aurora Flyers to ponder on. They can't beat the Square if they don't stay on the ice. That's been demonstrated twice. There are times when a penalty may be fairly well earned such as a devastating body check or when a poorer performer is smart enough to entice a better one on the other side to the sin bin, but cheap penalties and winning hockey don't mix. The fault isn't entirely with the players, however, for dropping the two games to the Square and the bench must take some of the responsibility for the losses. With the present round-robin series in vogue and barring a miracle both Aurora and the Square headed for the finals, there's an excellent opportunity for smoothing out the weak spots and the clearing away of misunderstandings. A bit of plain talk in the dressing room should have salutary effects. The fans will watch with interest the next few games.

How long can hockey promoters take it? The answer was just about reached last week at Unionville when Newmarket played there. The ten sponsors of the Unionville team, already using red ink for figuring, shuddered as a total gate of $1.60 was received at the Crosby Memorial arena. The club's share was .96 cents. Folks in canal-town shouldn't smile for it's only a few years ago that Jim Walker and George Haskett received $1.80 in a junior game. The entire four clubs in the local junior group all claim to be on the losing side of the ledger right now. There'll be a little eye-lifting by some of the folks at Aurora and Stouffville at this pronouncement, especially from those who have never backed a hockey team. History shows that a team is lucky to break even over the regular schedule with arenas that won't hold more than Stouffville or Aurora and hockey like everything else has been affected by inflationary trends. What action, if any, will be dealt out by the O.M.H.A. as a result of the treatment accorded Newmarket officials at Whitby last Saturday? Prexy Ken Waters and his executive will be showing signs of weakness if a stern edict isn't forthcoming. By the same token neither the N.H.L. nor O.H.A. have set a shining example of dealing with almost similar situations this year. Let the chips fall where they may and clean rowdiness out of hockey.

DEFEAT KESWICK

Aurora juveniles handed out a 10-3 beating to Keswick juveniles in the first game of the O.M.H.A. group play-downs on Monday. Johnny King, Ted Rogers, Walt Tunney and Gerry Simmons featured the Aurora win. In another semi-final on Friday, Bradford juveniles scored an impressive 7-5 verdict over Queensville. The four teams will complete their series in Aurora on Monday evening.

Hoffman's Take Colts Enter Play-Offs Tonight

By GEO. HASKETT, JR.

Those Newmarket fans who turned up at the arena Thursday went home with the conviction that they had seen their best intermediate game of the season with Hoffman and Barrie "Colts" tearing through 60 minutes of fast, exciting hockey. The Pressmen knocked over the second-place Colts 5-3. The win was all the more pleasing to take as it once again vaulted Hoffman out of the league cellar. It was the last game of the regular schedule for the local squad. They now move into the group semi-finals tonight against Collingwood "Shipbuilders". The second game is up for decision in the Georgian Bay centre on Monday night. Coach Bill Thoms had his squad firing the puck around in much snappier style than in previous games. Right winger Don Smith carried the scoring load with a three-goal display. He never looked better. Bill Johnston and Normie Legge were the helpers on two of Smith's tallies, "Whitey" Bone on the other. "Jing" Groves and Johnny Crewson tallied the other two. Left winger Myles McInnis took the bows for an assisting effort on both.

The initial period, featured some fast hockey with end-to-end rushes and ended in 1-1. Barrie shoved to the front in the second to hold a 3-2 advantage. Then the Hoffman forces set to work. They tallied three times in the final period without a reply from the Colts to walk away with the honors.

Joe Peat, looking much like the masked marvel, returned to a defence post and played a good game. Coach Bill Thoms moved Harry Caradonna up to centre where he was great on the fore-checking. The Smith-Johnston-Legge line played their best hockey of the campaign. Goalie Frankie Carr saved the situation several times with some nice saves.

It was a clean game with only two penalties, both to the visitors. Nesbitt got a two-minute stretch and Ab. Bowen a ten-minute misconduct rest for some back chat with Referee Braithwaite.

Defeat Richmond Hill In Badminton Fixture

Defeating Richmond Hill seven games to one in a regular North York Badminton league fixture last week, Newmarket vaulted into the league lead. The only loss of the night was in one of the four mixed doubles games.

Winning combinations in the men's doubles were Art Peppiatt and Charles Lee, Chuck MacLeod and Grant Blight; in the women's doubles, Helen Coveney and Phyllis Vale, Esther McGee and Lillian McNelly; in the mixed doubles, Phyllis Vale and Art Peppiatt, Esther McGee and Chuck MacLeod, Lillian McNelly and Grant Blight.

Tonight Newmarket invades Aurora for what is expected to be a strenuous session of badminton. Both teams have lost and won a game in the two played between Aurora and Newmarket.

Flyers Swamp Gapsos 13-1

By GEO. HASKETT, JR.

There were 13 goals scored Tuesday in the Aurora-Newmarket tilt at the arena. An unlucky number for Newmarket, for they got, but one goal, Aurora Flyers getting the 12.

It must be said Gapsos came up with one of their poorest displays of the season. They played little sound hockey. The Flyers on the other hand outskated, outshot and otherwise held the whip hand all night.

Once Aurora banged in their initial tally, which they did at 5:40 of the first period with Howard Patrick on the shooting end and Bill Patrick the assister, it was just a question of how many. The Flyers added another before the period came to a close, Mike Brinkos doing the job at the 17-minute mark.

Aurora added five markers in both the second and final chapters to make a rout of it. The Newmarket "lonie" came in the middle frame, Ken Broughton shooting one past "zero" Smith from about 15' out. Jack Davis was the helper on this.

Boost Stouffville Rating Up One

"I'm a lonely little petunia in an onion patch", or "Who put the overalls in Mrs. Murphy's chowder?" may well be the theme songs of the folks down Stouffville way following the decision handed down by the executive of the Ontario Hockey Association on Monday night at the Royal York hotel which elevated the group-leading Victoria Square (Stouffville) junior hockey team to the junior B series. This leaves Aurora, Newmarket and Unionville classified as C and this trio will be the ones fighting it out for the group honors. Victoria Square will automatically continue in the O.H.A. junior B play-downs, which includes such teams as Kingston Vics, Whitby, Lindsay, DeLaSalle College, Varsity Juniors, Brantford, Waterloo, Owen Sound, etc.

The O.H.A. decision was reached following representation by the executive of the Aurora Flyers. For two years a rule has been on the O.H.A. books requiring teams in the C series to have eight home-town players. This year the ruling makes it eight home-town players taking part in each and every game. So that it is not enough for a club to sign eight players from home, they must actually use them. Stouffville, of course, is home ice for Victoria Square and the majority of the executive reside in Stouffville, and the O.H.A. also ruled that this is the last year the club can be called Victoria Sq. Whether or not you take Victoria Sq. with no arena as home, or Stouffville with an arena as home, here's a summary of the origins and residences of the Victoria Square team.

From Richmond Hill come: goalies Dougie Moore and Norm Stunden and defence men Mac Clement and Jack Atkinson; from Pefferlaw: Bruce McMillan; from Mount Albert: Douglas Ross; from Milliken: Keith Jewitt and Don Campbell; from Unionville: Polly Minton; from Markham twp.: Bun Sellers; from Scarborough twp.: Bill Mabett; from Stouffville: Gordon Lewis, Warnick (third string goalie), and Burkholder.

The present schedule as being played will be carried out to completion. The only difference is that the Square will definitely not be in the junior C play-offs. Aurora kept its engagement at Newmarket on Monday night and Newmarket Gapeos will play in Aurora tonight.

With the exception of Bill Boychoff, formerly of Bradford, now employed in Aurora, and Dave Hopper who came to Aurora of his own accord to work, the entire Aurora team has come up from mid-level ranks and are all town boys. Lotta, Mulholland and Spry are the only outsiders on the Newmarket team. Coates, formerly of Bradford, now re-

Flyers Lose Overtime Match 5-4

By AB HULSE

Probably the largest crowd to ever see a hockey match in Aurora watched Victoria Square juniors demonstrate the reason they are on top of the district junior O.H.A. group last Thursday. The Square sextet took a 5-4 overtime win from Aurora Flyers, and despite the fact that on the night they were the better team of the two, they required a hearty smile from Dame Fortune to turn the trick. The winning counter came at 8:32 of the extra session as McMillan's shot caromed into the Aurora goal off Mike Brinkos' ankle. It was a heartbreaker for Eric Smith in the Aurora nets who stood out on the night like a beacon light in a losing cause.

The visiting firemen had an edge in the play in every period, and displayed a superb passing attack that at times had the Aurora defensive forces buffaloed. Add to that the ability to break faster and better bench-handling, plus fewer penalties, and you can see what the gamecock Flyers were up against. Aurora made it a battle all the way, had an edge in the early part of the first period, but it was Smith's stonewall effort and dogged determination that kept the Flyers in the fight to the end. Aurora was minus Billy Attridge, speedy left winger, and several of the first string players turned in their worst game of the season, to add to the difficulties. Referee Harry Morrison didn't miss a thing and made a grade A job of a task that drew him from one end of the rink to the other play after play. Aurora drew eight penalties while the Square had four.

Bill Wilkinson scored the opening goal at 9:15 as he slapped in McGhee's pass out from behind the net. Six minutes later Bill Patrick nudged in How. Patrick's relay on a gangling attack, and at this stage Aurora appeared likely to put the game on ice. McMillan at 18:05 put the Square back into the groove, after Smith had twice beaten Minton when the latter was in the clear. Tay or

BARBARA ANN DAZZLES OLYMPIC CROWDS

ON THE SKI TRAILS

By BOB SPEAR

The St. John's Ambulance course was started this week for the ski patrol and members of the ski club. There will be toboggan ambulance service at the ski club for the balance of the winter.

On Sunday the snow conditions were good but the weather was a bit cool. Many skiers were fooled and frozen when they dressed too lightly for the cold winds.

The moonlight ski will be held Friday, Feb. 20, at 7:30 p.m. There should be a full moon that night to ski by. The trip will be free to all members, and 50 cents to outsiders.

The ski club executive is glad to announce that a sizeable backlog of cash has been accumulated for the purpose of improvement of the ski club.

Newmarket Lions juveniles went to town in a scoring sense in a big way Monday. They wallowed, lambasted and otherwise played a merry tune on the score sheet with a 21-goal total. The Whitby juveniles had to content themselves with two. Newmarket previously took down a 12-5 triumph at Whitby last Friday, capturing the round by a 33-7 margin.

Fred Hall's squad Monday fired home six goals in the first canto, increased the production to nine in the second then slackened off a bit in the final chapter with a six-goal total. Martin Hayes in the Newmarket twine cage had an easy night of it. At times he could have brushed up on his homework for the play was in the Whitby zone for minutes at a time.

Charlie Boyd, the scorekeeper, was the busiest man in the rink next to the Whitby netminder, Dave Kemp. Kemp stopped plenty but even at that he suffered from red light glare as 21 shots went whistling by him.

We are not claiming a record for the Lions but we think they must be close to it. They put six goals into the Whitby cage in two minutes and ten seconds when Whitby was two men short. Dave Couch, who hasn't been too prominent on the record books, put three in. "Ortie" Thoms two and Don Gibson one.

All of the Hall-Gibson crew had a hand in the point gathering with "Ortie" Thoms in the lead with 11 scoring credits. Right winger Don Duncan garnered eight, seven of these from assists. Don Gibson was a strong asset for the Lions with seven.

It's off to Lindsay Thursday night says Ed Gibson Fred Hall and Frank Bowser. The return game will likely be up for decision Monday at Gunner's Gardens.

10-5 WIN
